To resolve conflict we can...

TALK, WALK, REPORT

TALK

WALK

REPORT

Talk

- Talk to the person about what has upset or hurt you
- Use “I statements”
- I feel...when you...because...
- Next time can you please...
  - “I felt sad when you didn’t sit with me because I wanted to sit with you. Next break can I please sit with you?”
  - “I felt angry when you didn’t let me play because I really wanted to. Next time can I please play?”

Walk

- If you have done the talk and it doesn't seem to help, walk away
- Sometimes we need to walk away to help us calm down because we might be really angry or really sad

Report (Prep – Yr 1)

- If the conflict keeps going, report it to a teacher.
- When you tell the teacher, say:
  - Where it happened
  - When it happened
  - What happened
  - "At lunch time on the oval Jesse kept taking my hat and wouldn't give it back."
- In the classroom – tell the teacher
- In the playground – tell the teacher on duty who is wearing a yellow vest
- The teachers will ask you if you have talked and walked!

Report (Year 2 – 6)

- If the conflict isn't resolved, report it to a teacher.
- When you tell the teacher, just include the facts!
  - Where it happened
  - When it happened
  - What happened
  - "When I was on the oval at lunch time, Jesse took my hat and ran off with it. I told him that I didn't like it because I needed my hat on to be safe and asked him not to do it next time, but he did it again."
  - "I was playing soccer on the oval at second break and Jasmine came from another game and kicked our ball. I told her that it makes us angry and asked her not to do it again but she kept doing it."
- If the conflict is in the classroom, tell your teacher.
- If the conflict is in the playground, tell the teacher on duty. Teachers wear a yellow vest.
- The teachers will ask you if you have talked and walked!
